What is a cooperative?

Cooperatives are member-owned businesses.

Cooperatives are part of the self-help tradition of America. Cooperatives are businesses organized by people to provide needed goods and services.

- Cooperative businesses:
- Are owned by the people who use their services
  - provide an economic benefit to their members
  - are democratic organizations controlled by their members.
  - are autonomous and independent
  - recognize the importance of education
  - support cooperation among cooperatives, which results in the growing importance of cooperatives in today's global economy
  - exhibits concern for their communities
